Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 26 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells along with a few showers. Feeling warmer.

Today:
A damp start in places but then becoming brighter with sunny spells developing. Scattered sharp showers in the afternoon. A warmer day for all with light winds. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry night and most cloud clearing but mist and fog forming in places especially with the very light winds. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Dry and bright with plenty of sunshine, a small chance of an afternoon shower but generally dry, feeling pleasantly warm. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A more settled and warmer spell of weather but some light rain creeping in from the west on Friday. Drier and brighter on Saturday and Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.